The application is signed digitally:

- in the case of an established temporary grouping or ordinary consortium, by the principal/lead company.
- in the case of a temporary grouping or ordinary consortium not yet established, by all the entities that will form the grouping or consortium;
- in the case of groupings of enterprises adhering to the network contract, the rules laid down for temporary groupings of companies apply, insofar as they are compatible. In particular:
 - a. if the network has a common body with power of representation and legal personality, pursuant to Article 3, paragraph 4-quater of Italian Decree-Law No. 5 of 10 February 2009, the application to participate must be signed digitally only by the economic operator acting as common body;
 - b. if the network has a common body with power of representation but does not have legal personality, pursuant to Article 3, paragraph 4-quater, of Italian Decree-Law No. 5 of 10 February 2009, the application to participate must be signed digitally by the economic operator acting as common body, as well as by each member of the network contract participating in the tender;
 - c. if the network has a common body without power of representation, or if the network does not have a common body, or if the common body does not meet the qualification requirements to act as agent, the application to participate must be signed digitally by the network member company acting as agent or, in the case of participation in the form of a grouping to be established, by each member of the network contract participating in the tender.
- in the event of a consortium of cooperatives and craft companies or a stable consortium as referred to in Article 65(2)(b), (c) and (d) of the Code, the application must be signed digitally by the consortium itself.

(1) If the documentation is signed by the company's attorney, a copy of the relevant power of attorney or other document evidencing powers of representation must be attached.
